SCUBA Diving in AZ?

Arizona actually has the 2nd highest percentage of certified divers in the country. Right to the south we have amazing tropical diving in Mexico. A few hours west we have the California kelp beds. And to top it off our easy access to local lake diving keeps you in the water and your skills up to date year round.

Why wait and pay an arm and a leg on vacation for a low quality rushed class.

Don't make the mistake of going on that dream cruise only to be stuck on the boat while everyone else is enjoying the tropical waters.

Get certified now, and start enjoying the underwater world.
